

Coaches and Leaders Code of Conduct

Coaches and leaders play a crucial role in the development of athletics and in the lives of the athletes they coach and lead. They have a unique position of trust in athletics and the need for coaches and leaders to understand and act on their responsibilities is vital, as is the need to promote participation for fun and enjoyment. The code of conduct for coaches and leaders reflects the principles of good coaching practice.

Responsibilities – Professional Standards

To maximise the benefits and minimise the risks to athletes, coaches and leaders must attain an appropriate level of competence through qualifications, and a commitment to ongoing training to ensure safe and correct practice.

Responsibilities – Personal Standards

Coaches and leaders must demonstrate proper personal behaviour and conduct at all times.

Rights

Coaches and leaders must respect and champion the rights of every individual to participate in sport and physical activity.

Relationships

Coaches and leaders must develop a positive relationship with their participants (and others) based on openness, honesty, mutual trust and respect.
